

Billy had dreams of a sailor or an astronaut
Nobody told him the world was mean
Billy grew up in a trailer
And nobody thought he could amount to anything
But I knew he would because he has a heart of gold
Woah, oh-oh

Hey, oh-oh
Well look who's laughing now
Billy bought a brand new house
To all the people that were mean
He just channeled your energy
And hey, oh-oh
Well look who's laughing now
Yeah, he said "Thank you for your doubts"
To all the people that believed
He just channeled your energy

Billy woke up in a Tesla at twenty-three
He didn't think he earned the ride
And Billy got down under pressure at twenty-four
He couldn't go to bed at night
Cause he saw the world come crashing down the way it does
Woah, oh-oh

Hey, oh-oh
Well look who's laughing now
'Cause Billy bought a brand new house
To all the people that were mean
He just channeled your energy
And hey, oh-oh
Well look who's laughing now
Yeah, he said thank you for your doubts
To all the people that believed
He just channeled your energy

Now Billy is free
It's Billy, oh-oh
It's Billy, it's Billy, it's Billy
Oh-oh, oh-oh, alright woo
