

Bracelet

Lauv

Didn't know what I wanted
I'll admit that
Still don't know what I wanted
I'll be honest, I'm not ready to let you go

I walk down memory lane late at night
I end up losing my way every time
I wake up missing you more
Oh why did I say goodbye?

I used to have you, now I have this bracelet
I used to have you, now I have this bracelet
I let you go but baby I'm gonna wear it
Until I don't need to
Until I don't need you

All I know is I can't face it
I used to have you, now I have this bracelet
I let you go but baby I'm gonna wear it
Until I don't need to
Until I don't need you

Anyway I could toss it
I'll admit that
That don't mean that I need to keep you wrapped around my wrist
Oh no

I walk down memory lane late at night
I end up losing my way every time
I wake up missing you more
Oh why did I say goodbye

I used to have you, now I have this bracelet
I used to have you, now I have this bracelet
I let you go but baby I'm gonna wear it
Until I don't need to
Until I don't need you
All I know is I can't face it
I used to have you, now I have this bracelet
I let you go but baby I'm gonna wear it
Until I don't need to
Until I don't need you

And another day is passing by
Oh I still need you
And another day is passing by
Oh I still need you
All of these Melatonin tears I cry
Oh I still need you
Oh I still need you

I used to have you, now I have this bracelet
I used to have you, now I have this bracelet
I let you go but baby I'm gonna wear it
Until I don't need to
Until I don't need you

All I know is I can't face it
I used to have you, now I have this bracelet

I walk down memory lane late at night
I end up losing my way every time
I wake up missing you more
Oh is it goodbye

(Bye, Bye, Bye, Bye)

Missing you more oh why?
