So what if this is it?
What if it falls apart in front of my face?
I wouldn't be surprised
'Cause it happens every time

And now I'm feeling sick
Doing all these things, I just push you away
Baby, tell me why do I do this every time?

I'm no good at loving you
But I'll try time and time again
Kiss me now and tell me why you're still here

'Cause I'm no stranger to loving
I'm no stranger to falling apart
No stranger to secrets and monsters and demons
I'm scared of the dark
I'm no stranger to fighting
I'm no stranger to playing with hearts
No stranger to secrets and monsters and demons
I'm scared of the dark

What if this is it? Yeah
Drunk on a Saturday night
Suddenly her hand fits perfectly in mine, yeah
And all my fears and all my thoughts
You see through, through it all
Kiss me now and tell me why you're still here

'Cause I'm no stranger to loving
I'm no stranger to falling apart
No stranger to secrets and monsters and demons
I'm scared of the dark
I'm no stranger to fighting
I'm no stranger to playing with hearts
No stranger to secrets and monsters and demons
I'm scared of the dark

So leave the light on
Leave the light on
So leave the light on
Leave the light on

'Cause I'm no stranger to loving
I'm no stranger to falling apart
No stranger to secrets and monsters and demons
I'm scared of the dark
