

Forgive

Lavender Diamond

Forgive, you must forgive all
To live and love
Forgive, you must forgive all
To live and love

What you say is what you make
So create all, don't break
Liberate the man you are
It's not too hard, it's not too far

Forgive, you must forgive all
Lift the weight from your heart
Before it's not too hard
And not too soon

Forgive, you must forgive all
To live and love
So say you will forget
The world of all, the world is small
Liberate the man you are
The world is small

Forgive, you must forgive all
Lift the weight from your heart
Before.

Forgive, you must forgive all
To live and love
