

Here Comes One

Lavender Diamond

Well then you thought that the end was in sight
And then you thought there was nothing to fight
But you had opened your heart with your mind!
Oh, here comes one!
And you were searching for something to give
And you were searching for some way to live
But you had opened your heart with your mind!
Oh, here comes one

Oh, you walk down the street, and you work so hard!
Well let me tell you!
Here comes one!
Oh, here comes one!
Oh, here comes one!
Oh, here comes one!

And you were hoping that things would go right
And you were hoping that day could be night
But you had opened your heart with your mind!
Oh, here comes one!

And you were searching for something to say
And you were hoping to find a new way
But you had opened your heart with your mind!
Oh, here comes one!
Oh, here comes one!

Oh, you walk down the street, and you work so hard!
Well let me tell you!
Here comes one!
Oh, here comes one!
Oh, here comes one!
Oh, here comes one!

Use your heart to decide!
Decide! Use your heart to decide!
Decide! Use your heart to decide!
Ah! Ah! Ooo! Ooo!
