

For Love of You

LaVern Baker

For love of you, my heart is aching now
For love of you, it's almost breaking now
I've hurt him so, I don't know what to do
For love of you, for love of you, for love of you
I need your arms to hold me tenderly
I need your lips, I need you close to me
Since we're apart, I'm crying all night through
For love of you, for love of you, for love of you
Don't you know, can't you see
Without you I can't be?
For love of you, my heart is aching now
For love of you, it's almost breaking now
Come back, come back, why must I be so blue?
For love of you, for love of you, for love of you
Come back, come back, I'm still in blue
For love of you, for love of you, for love of you
