

Killing Me

Lawson

You walk in and I can hardly breathe
Your skin just the touch of your skin
Would be the death of me

If this is heaven lay me down to rest
And if it's not it must be second best

Love, why did you wait so long
To find me here?
I swore that the sun would surely
Hide all year
But you brought the brightest light
Oh, the grace in the way that you move is
Killing me

Kiss me with your poison lips
Let it seep in my veins so I'll never be the same
Let me drown in it

I'll follow you into the endless night
Just tell me that you'll bring me back to life

Love, why did you wait so long
To find me here?
I swore that the sun would surely
Hide all year
But you brought the brightest light
And it started sinking the dark like a stone
I'm in the fight of my life
Oh, the grace in the way that you move is
Killing me
Killing me

And I can't breathe
It's killing me

Love, why did you wait so long
To find me here?
'Cause you brought the brightest light
And it started sinking the dark like a stone
I'm in the fight of my life
The grace of the way that you move
Ooh, the grace in the way that you move is
Killing me
Killing me
