

Only Water

Lawson

It's been two hours, blank at each other
Don't draw this out, no need to suffer
Do we say that it was just while the bed was cold?
You touched my face that makes it better
But I've seen the life, we can't have together
So why am I finding it so hard to cut the tie

It's only water, filling up my eyes
It's only water, why am I crying
Why are we crying?
It's only water, why cry?

We found this love when we were desperate
If I could go back, I would have left it
Don't look at me like I'm not saying this for you as well

It's only water, filling my eyes
It's only water, why am I crying?
Why are we crying?

Sometimes I don't know myself
And I find I'm in tears when I least expect it
It's only water I cry

Why, why this feeling now?
Do we have to break it off, to bring it back to life?
Why this feeling now?
Do I have to cry this way to realize?

It's only water if I cry

It's only water, filling up my eyes
It's only water, why am I crying?
Why are we crying?

Sometimes I don't know myself
And I find I'm in tears when I least expect it
It's only water if I cry

If I cry
