

You Didn't Tell Me

Lawson

There you stood, next to me
And you waited, patiently
I approached, held you near
Then you whispered, in my ear

You didn't tell me
You didn't need me
You went and left it all behind
You didn't tell me
You didn't warn me
Don't I ever cross your mind?

Friday night, broken plans
Then I see you, holding hands
With that guy, now it's clear
As I watch my world disappeared

You didn't tell me
You didn't need me
You went and left it all behind
You didn't tell me
You didn't warn me
Don't I ever cross your mind?

Didn't you tell me

Should of seen it in your face that you lied
Oh and I should have known
That I after everything
You were so cold, so cold...

You didn't tell me
You didn't need me
Don't I ever cross your mind?
Oooh you didn't tell me...

I don't ever wanna hear your name
I don't ever wanna play your games
Cos I been living with the same heart ache
I won't ever make the same the mistake x4

You didn't tell me
You didn't need me
You went and left it all behind
You didn't tell me
You didn't warn me
Didn't it ever cross your mind?

You didn't tell me
You didn't need me
Didn't it ever cross your mind?
You didn't tell me
You didn't warn me
Didn't you ever say goodbye?

Oh, oh yeah
