

Open Wounds

Layton Greene

G Styles on the track, lil' boy, woah
Oh

These open wounds need some time to heal
You did me wrong but want me to forgive
I'm so tired of going back to the same shit
I'm so tired of going back to the lame shit
I think my heart needs to take some time to heal

I gave you everything that I had in me
But it wasn't enough (No, it wasn't enough)
I even changed a few things that you didn't like about me (That you didn't like about me)
But it still didn't wake you up
Now my heart is broken, broken, you left me hanging
This what I get for putting my trust in you
But I was hoping, hoping that you really loved me
But I feel as though you cut me
And out of these wounds, I'm bleeding

These open wounds need some time to heal
You did me wrong but want me to forgive
I'm so tired of going back to the same shit
I'm so tired of going back to the lame shit
I think my heart needs to take some time to heal

You didn't think that I would find out 'bout your ex (Yeah)
You didn't think that I would find out y'all had sex (Yeah)
You didn't think that I would go through all your text (Woah)
I think it's time to lay this shit to rest
'Cause there's a real man out there for me
And he gon' give me all his love and he gon' spoil me
May even show me finer things
May even buy me diamond rings
And don't come running back when I found love (Yeah)
You had your turn, better learn this time's up (Yeah)
I gotta move on, it's messing with my head (Messin' with my head)
Even my mama worried 'bout me, she can tell
Yeah, 'cause that's my heart
You had a good hand, but failed your cards
I think it's only fair we walk apart
Before you leave me scarred

These open wounds need some time to heal (Gotta take some time)
You did me wrong but want me to forgive
I'm so tired of going back to the same shit
I'm so tired of going back to the lame shit
I think my heart needs to take some time to heal (Heal)

Gotta take some time and heal
And then I'm leaving, and then I'm leaving
