Le Butcherettes

Injuries are slashed deep open
Messiahs hold them still
Injuries are slashed deep open
Messiahs hold them still

Heatwaves calling for a thunder strike
You've tied us up, slowly lost the light
Losing five pesos on a day of work hard
For once, come closer
Listen to my cry

You're a liar
You can't erase my fight from prophecies
No apologies are wanted
Razors cut your grace

Injuries are slashed deep open
Messiahs hold them still
Injuries are slashed deep open
Messiahs hold them still
In, you want in, in, you want in

Slave gold mercy isn't here to stay
Patience leaves me when I see your way
Confusion arises as I try to latch on
I was Mother Mary smothered by her God

You're a liar
You can't erase my fight from prophecies
No apologies are wanted
Razors cut your grace

Injuries are slashed deep open
Messiahs hold them still
Injuries are slashed deep open
Messiahs hold them still
In, you want in, in, you want in, in, you want in

Lies, they're all lies!
Your feathers are falling while you fly
Why can't I feel anything when you say goodbye?

Injuries are slashed deep open
Messiahs hold them still
Injuries are slashed deep open
Messiahs hold them still
Injuries are slashed deep open
Messiahs hold them still
Injuries are slashed deep open
Messiahs hold them still
In, you want in, in, you want in, in, you want in
In, you want in, in, you want in, in, you want in
Injuries are slashed deep open
Messiahs hold them still
