Le Youth

You come and go like the seasons
Thought we were cool for the summertime
Soon as I started to need it
Said you loved me then said nevermind

Then you're calling again calling again
And I try to pretend we can be friends
Think you know how it ends know how it ends
But I'm not falling for this

I don't wanna be a number in your pattern anymore
I don't wanna be another girl that's knocking on your door
While you're hiding in your room
With someone else who doesn't matter
I don't wanna be a number in your pattern anymore
