

Temporary Arrangement

Lea Michele

Hey, Mr. Arnstein
Here's your ace

It's a temporary arrangement
When you're down
There's nowhere to go but up

I find that lady luck changes affection
Fortune's a fickle dame
Haven't run into them lately
But both of them know my name
It's a temporary estrangement
From the crystal dish and the silver knife

There's another side to the coin
Tomorrow night, tenderloin
'Cause a temporary arrangement
Is the only permanent thing in life

I find that lady luck changes affection
Fortune's a fickle dame
Haven't run into them lately
But both of them know my name
It's a temporary estrangement
From the crystal dish and the silver knife

'Cause a temporary arrangement

Is the only permanent thing

Only permanent thing

(The only)

The only permanent thing

(Only)

Permanent thing!

Temporary, temporary, temporary
