

Truce

Lea Michele

Don't even speak, don't say a word
Cause when we scream, you know we don't fight fair
You know we don't fight fair
Let's call a truce and hold your fire
Put down your arms
We can just lie here
Yeah, we can just lie here
And breathe
And breathe
Oh and breathe

Don't turn away, don't shut me out
Face to face, yeah we can just lie here
Yeah, we can just lie here
You don't have to be the son of a warrior
I don't have to be the blood on the battleground
We don't have to bruise, we don't have to lose
We can call a truce
And breathe
And breathe
Oh and breathe

Don't even speak, don't say a word
Cause when we scream, you know we don't fight fair
You know we don't fight fair
You don't have to be the son of a warrior
I don't have to be the blood on the battleground
We don't have to bruise, we don't have to lose
We can call a truce
And breathe
Oh and breathe
Oh and breathe
And breathe
Oh and breathe
Oh and breathe

Don't turn away, don't shut me out
Face to face, yeah we can just lie here
Yeah, we can just lie here
