

Do You Hear It

Lea Salonga

A candle in the dark
Slowly fading away
Just like that little echo
Do you hear it cutting through the night

Somewhere along the stars
A wish is sent by a fragile heart
Listen as it beats
Longing for something deep inside

Fly high up a mountain
A new door to explore
A journey to new horizons
Is this too much for one wish
To be so free, to be just me
Do you hear that whisper in the dark

One voice, slowly, softly
Searching for the memory
To sing life's harmony

Do you hear it, do you hear me

Do you hear my whisper in the dark
