

Stupid

Leah Kate

I bought a new dress
Got all pretty
Told my friends I'm so excited
Just for you to un-invite me to the party
And you never said you're sorry

But two days later
I was with you
Let you take off all my clothes and pull me close
And made me listen to your issues
I can't believe I miss you

I'm not supposed to
Fucking want you
But somehow
I still do

So won't you just come over
I don't care if you lie
Tell me that you fucked up
And I'll believe you one last time

And I'll ignore all the other girls
I'll pretend I never saw you go home with her
And I'll laugh at your jokes like it doesn't hurt
Even though I know what you did
I promise I'll play stupid

Wanting you is like a sickness
Like a car that's gonna crash
It's spinning way too fuckin' fast over the limit
God I'm so deep in it

I'm not supposed to
Fucking want you
But somehow I still do

So won't you just come over
I don't care if you lie
Tell me that you fucked up
And I'll believe you one last time

And I'll ignore all the other girls
I'll pretend I never saw you go home with her
And I'll laugh at your jokes like it doesn't hurt
Even though I know what you did
I promise I'll play stupid

I promise I'll play stupid

I know it's useless
Cause every night with you, you fucking ruin
And I know I know better than to do this
But I wanna do this

So won't you just come over
Don't care if you lie

Tell me that you fucked up

And I'll ignore all the other girls
And I'll laugh at your jokes like it doesn't hurt
Even though I know what you did

I promise I'll play stupid

'Cause I'm not stupid
