

Two Years

Leah Kate

You were in my dream last night
I was rushing to meet you
Had to get my coat
By the time I got there
You had left

Baby then I woke up crying
Cause it all felt so real
Even though I know
My head is the
Only place you still exist

But it's been 2 years
How long's it gonna take
Never ending tears
Since you went away
Someone tell me why
Nothing has changed
Somehow I still
Miss you just the Same

I could go on and on and on
About your ugly blue car
Your amazing taste
Summer nights, the music that you'd play

Laughing over paper plates
I could call you any time
Cause you stayed up late
Everybody says I'll be okay

But it's been 2 years
How long's it gonna take
Never ending tears
Since you went away
Someone tell me why
Nothing has changed
Somehow I still
Miss you just the Same

Since that night
November 28
You're not with me anymore
But you're with me every day
I get tongue tied
Anytime I hear your name
And when people ask about about you
I don't know what to say
Cause I need you now, more than ever
And I know nothing lasts forever

But it's been 2 years
How long's it gonna take
Never ending tears
Since you went away

Someone tell me why
Nothing has changed
Somehow I still
Miss you just the Same
