

Visions

Leah Kate

It's been seven days since I've seen your face
But I still can't erase the love you gave
No matter how I try to rid you from my mind
Every single time, you start to cave

Nights all alone in this bedroom
Flashbacks to summers on your roof
I should leave it all behind

But I can't fight these
Visions, memories of you and me
These visions of everything we used to be
These visions keep getting the best of me
And I can't let go

Can't fight these visions
Can't fight these visions
No

It's been seven nights since you left my side
And I still can't deny, it feels like forever

Nights all alone in this bedroom
Flashbacks to summers on your roof
I should leave it all behind

But I can't fight these
Visions, memories of you and me
These visions of everything we used to be
These visions keep getting the best of me
And I can't let go

Can't fight these visions (Visions)
Can't fight these visions
No, I can't, no, I can't, no, I can't no
No, I can't, no, I can't, no, I can't no

Can't fight these visions, no (No)
Can't fight these visions

Can't fight these visions
Can't fight these visions, no
