

Focus

Leah McFall

I've been losing focus, focus
Lord I've been losing focus, focus
I've felt so broken, broken, broken
I need you to lead me
There's so much I can't see

I wanna follow you into eternity
And see what I can't see
I've been losing focus, focus
I've felt so broken, broken

I don't even know where to start
Do I even know my own heart?
If life could ever be easy
Then I could navigate my feelings

I wanted to sing, wanted to praise, wanted to have a purpose
Then so much pain and everything changed
I don't even know if it's worth it
Yahweh
I've lost my way, I'm not okay, I need to pray to you

Don't let me lose
Don't let me lose focus
Don't let me lose focus

I've been losing focus, focus
Lord I've been losing focus, focus
I've felt so broken, broken, broken
I need you to lead me
There's so much I can't see

I wanna follow you into eternity
And see what I can't see
I've been losing focus, focus
I've felt so broken, broken

I wanted to sing, wanted to praise, wanted to have a purpose
Then so much pain and everything changed
I don't even know if it's worth it

Don't let me lose
Don't let me lose
Don't let me lose
Don't let me lose

Don't let me lose focus
Don't let me lose focus
