

Freckles

Leah McFall

All your life you've been daydreaming
But it's yourself you don't believe in
Your magic is kept a quiet secret
Don't put on mute, you need to speak it

Wash away what you
Hide all day
Bare it all supernatural

Just do it, do it, babe
Show them freckles on your face
Don't you worry, babe
What you're born with you should embrace
Just do it, do it, babe
Show them freckles on your face
Don't you worry, babe
What you're born with you should embrace
I just wanna let you know you're gorgeous, so gorgeous

All your life you've felt you're see-through
Invisible, no one can see you
Illusion has kept you blinded to your art
What's more beautiful than your heart?

Wash away what you
Hide all day
Bare it all supernatural

Just do it, do it, babe
Show them freckles on your face
Don't you worry, babe
What you're born with you should embrace
Just do it, do it, babe
Show them freckles on your face
Don't you worry, babe
What you're born with you should embrace
I just wanna let you know you're gorgeous

(Gorgeous, you're so gorgeous)
(Gorgeous, you're so gorgeous)
I just wanna let you know you're, you're (Gorgeous, you're so gorgeous)
I just wanna let you know

Just do it, do it, babe
Show them freckles on your face
Don't you worry, babe
What you're born with you should embrace
Just do it, do it, babe
Show them freckles on your face
Don't you worry, babe
What you're born with you should embrace
