

Only You & I

Leah McFall

Hope deferred can make the heart grow weak
Well, I'm holding on to every word
That I have ever heard you speak to me
I don't wanna be a person that is blown
By the wind and by the sea
Disappointment drowning me
Come take hold of me

I'm tryna lift my eyes
To you
But I'm so scared I'm losing time
Moving slow, I feel left behind
I'm losing faith, here in the waiting place
Where it's only you & I
Only you & I

Hope fulfilled is like a tree of life
Look at all the seed I've sewn
I'm just waiting for one to grow
I know a used to be a person that believed
You were sailing me, but I'm feeling lost at sea
Come take hold of me

I'm tryna lift my eyes
To you
But I'm so scared I'm losing time
Moving slow, I feel left behind
I'm losing faith, here in the waiting place
Where it's only you & I
Only you & I
A sacred space, the waiting place
Where it's only you & I
Only you & I
