

Outside The Lines

Leah McFall

Have you ever watched a child colour the pages?
They very rarely stay inside the lines
But somehow when we're older we're less able
To let ourselves be free and unrefined

Maybe childlike faith
Can see pictures we don't understand
They're just following the shapes
Not drawn by human hands

God come
Come colour outside the line of my dreams
Come colour outside
Paint in shades I've never seen
Send me places I've never been
God come, come colour outside

I'm done with mourning all my disappointments
Cause I know you are proud of who I am
And I don't wanna keep tracing the same picture
So take all of my dreams God and run wild

Give me childlike faith
To find joy when I don't understand
I want purpose
Let me glorify you Jesus
Will you guide my hands?

God come
Come colour outside the line of my dreams
Come colour outside
Paint in shades I've never seen
Send me places I've never been
God come
Come colour outside the line of my dreams
Come colour outside
Paint in shades I've never seen
Send me places I've never been
God come, come colour outside the lines

I see the beauty in the colours we've used before
But you are showing me there's still so much more to explore
I feel you moving and I'm ready for something new
These empty pages come to life when I'm dreaming with you

God come
Come colour outside the line of my dreams
Come colour outside
Paint in shades I've never seen
Send me places I've never been
God come
Come colour outside the line of my dreams
Come colour outside
Paint in shades I've never seen
Send me places I've never been
God come, come colour outside the lines
