

Illusion

Leah

Love, I want you to know, every time
I wanted to show, this raging inside
I've fallen behind, every time
You whisper the line, I'm raging inside

This is my illusion, oh
Lost but not forgotten, oh

Love, I want to embrace what I despise
I try to erase this plaguing inside
I've long been enslaved in your eyes
For all you've depraved, is replacing inside

This is my illusion - oh
Lost but not forgotten - oh

Fell in love with the ruins, the ruins
And the reigns remained
Fell in time to the weakness of hunger
A romance decay
