

Say Yes

Leah

Wasted a lie, can't understand why
Wasted and untied, want you to run away
Wanted to try, can't ever stand behind
Wanting to hide, from everything I want to say

Say yes to me, my love
It's all you'll ever need

Watching your eyes, I'm lingering for a while
Something inside, makes you want to run away
Fading this time, I'm going out like the tide
Washing away everything I want to say

Say yes to me, my love
It's all you'll ever need

I am afraid of the fear...

Wasted a lie
Wanted to hide
Watching your eyes
Fading this time
