

Tragedy & Magic

Leah

Oh the sea is calling, I'll set sail for you
There's a world of dreams beyond, I'll journey home to you

The edge of a map, the ancient path
Never look back, 'till I'm with you at last

As spring gardens bloom, so our time has come
When the red clouds move, the past is undone

Lantern light, glowing white
Say goodbye to lonely nights

Legends live on long after you're gone
Though tragedy and magic have fallen
The world may forget but I'll never regret
Our tragedy and magic, beloved

Oh the sea is calling, I'll set sail for you
There's a world of dreams beyond, I'll journey home to you
