

The Gift of Your Love

LeAnn Rimes

No nothing
You could give me
Would compare
To the gift of your love
Not a star in the heavens
Not a diamond so rare
No light can compare
To the gift of your love

So don't buy me anything
Cause all I ever, ever need
Is for me to fall deeper into you
And you deeper into me
I wouldn't know how to wish for
Heavenly love this rare
Nothing can compare
To the gift of your love

I want you to know you save me
Like only love can dare
Nothing can compare
To the gift of your love
Every breath I breathe's a prayer
For the gift of your love
