

My Worlds End

Leatherface

When it starts to get darker
And the rain clouds are winning
I know they have won
When the foghorn comes
The seagull's sound
Like they're in my room
There's a fly on the arm of the chair that I'm sitting
You talked through my favourite tunes
I recorded that thing for you on channel 2
Chanel No.5 you said I never listen
You should have seen your face
When I told you Hagen Daas can cause infarctions
Hagen Daas can cause infarctions

Welcome to my worlds end

Just past the lighthouse
I see a small fishing boat
The sun spikes through the rain clouds
Asserting some hope
And checking the time on that watch
You'd bought me
I forgot you'd taken it back
Which was slightly annoying
As boring as a day with Roger McGough
I'd rather be face down in a pig's trough
You should have seen your face when I told you
Hagen Daas can cause infarctions

Welcome to my world's end
