

Ocean's Way

Leaves' Eyes

Ocean's Way
The way of the ocean
Touch my heart like fire
I cannot control you
You have deeper layers
You're alive and you're wild
When you're nearer to me
I lean forward to touch you
But you surprised me
When I lean against you
I will only fall through
Sometimes you seem to sleep
Then a storm's coming through Fear the ocean's way
Ah should I fear you
Are you caught in anger
Gods cannot control you
Winds make you go higher
If I swim to the ground
I will need to go up
You will turn me around
When the storm's coming through
When the morning dawns bright
I admire the silvery-ness inside you
I look into this mirror
Ocean's way
The way of the ocean
It's the waves rurlled by the winds
