

No One Holds Hands

Lebanon Hanover

I've never been anyone's prince
I've never been anyone's someone
It's all coming true
You woke me from my slumber

You made me so much stronger

But now no one holds hands
But now no one holds hands
No one holds hands anymore

I've never been anyone's doll
I've never been of anyone's interest
It's all coming true
Our porcelain hands will save us

But now no one holds hands
But now no one holds hands
No one holds hands anymore
