

Bun B speaks

Lecrae

Yo, Lecrae, what's up?

It's the OG Bun B

You know everything you see should always be about the truth, man

I've always told people, man, don't fake, you know, who you are or try to create a character because everything comes to the light

So just be who you are, be true to yourself

If they see your true struggle people will relate to you

And that's what I got to say to you, man

Just be true to who you are, people will recognize your struggle, and they'll walk with you as you walk your walk, know what I'm saying?
