

Choose Me

Ledisi

Why play games with my heart when it's shattered?
Time to go, how to leave, I don't know
I made you my everything, yeah
I'm tryna figure out where we going, what we're doing
And why all the roads keep leading back to you and me, yeah
I know I will be a fool to stay, but it's hard for me to walk away
I deserve better, need to be by myself, hey
But I want a love I know is forbidden
Neither side will win but it feels like I'm winning
It's so hard to tell

Choose me
I want you to stay and
Choose me
You belong to no one
I know but
Choose me
I want you to stay and
Choose me
It's hard to leave

Ooh, I'm feelin' so confused, you're an open door
You're a bad habit I'm tryna break, baby
I'm tryna be all the things that you wanted
But it feels I'm giving all I am away
Mmm, loving you defies all my logic
You say you love me too, many mind tricks
Then we're making love on the floor
Hey you, only you, hey
You make me want what's not there

Choose me
I want you to stay and
Choose me
You belong to no one
I know but
Choose me
I want you to stay and
Choose me
It's hard, it's hard to let you go, baby
Choose me
I want you to stay and
Choose me
You belong to no one
I know but
Choose me
I want you to stay and
Choose me
I want you to stay and
Choose me
You belong to no one
I know but
Choose me
I want you to stay and
Choose me
Ooh, baby

Ooh, yeah, baby
Ooh
Choose me
Ooh, yeah, yeah-yeah
