

Hello Love

Ledisi

Hello, love
Where you've been
So good to see you smile and be this side again
After all of what I've been through
I knew one day I would see you
Hello, love
Ooh

Thinking how did I get here
Went through a storm
When nothing really seemed clear
I held on
'Cause even when it's dark
You gotta know you're the light
Don't give up
You're just going through changes

Like a phoenix rising
Begin again
Feeling so much stronger
Yes, I deserve to win
This is my life
Hey, and with everything I got
I believe
Joy will come

Hello, love
Where you've been
So good to see you smile and be this side again
After all of what I've been through
I knew one day I would see you
Hello, love

Now I got my walk back
Feeling good 'bout me
Lookin' up and not back
How it's supposed to be
The sun is up, another day
To do whatever I feel
Took awhile
And baby I'm here

Hello, love
Where you've been
So good to see you smile and be this side again
After all of what I've been through
I knew one day I would see you
Hello, love, love

Hello, love (Hello, love)
Hello, love (Hello)
Hello, love (Hello, love)
Where you been? (Hello)
Hello, love (Hello, love)
Hello, love (Hello, love)
Where you been?
Hello, love (I'm happy to see you again)

And I walk back
Feeling real good to me
Everything's clear
Life is good for me
Yes, hello love
Hello, I'm happy to see you again
Hello, love
Where you've been (Where you been)
So good to see you smile and be this side again (Yeah)
After all of what I've been through (After everything I been through)
I knew one day I would see you (I knew I'd see you again)
Hello, love, love (Hello, again, yeah)
Lemme walk back
I'm feeling real good 'bout me
Life is clear
Feels so good to be free
Free
