

Burnin' Love

Lee Aaron

You know I crossed my baby..
One crazy night
As cold as ice, he came at me
With words that cut like a knife

Oh don't ya start complainin'
About my reckless ways
So bittersweet, he cuts so deep
Sad an' lonely every, night 'n' day.... yeah

(Oh no no no baby)
You've got a burnin' love (burning love...)
So when you get back tonight
With your burning love...

How can you tell me who hides inside
Just what it is that you feel
When all it takes, is a little touch to make tears ya cry
Hard to believe... oh

Don't ya start complainin'
About my reckless ways
So bittersweet, he cuts so deep
Sad an' lonely every, night 'n' day... yeah

(Oh no no no baby)
You've got a burning love (burning love...)
So when you get back to me
With your burning love... (burning love...)

Oh no no no no no baby
You've got a burning love (a burning love...)
So when you get back to me
With your burning love...
Ooh yeah

TALK:
Just a little touch

SING:
(Oh no no no baby)
You've got a burning love (burning love...)
So when you get back tonight
With your burning love... (burning love...)

Oh no no no no no baby
You've got a burning love (burning love...)
So when you get back tonight
With your burning love (burning love...)

Ohh... oh, oh baby
You've got a burning love (burning love...)
So when you get back tonight
With your burning love (burning love...)
