

Heart Fix

Lee Aaron

The stranger in your head was always free
The danger in you bed was always me
I was the one who had your back
Who held your head
When you were wasted
You were the one who said i know
This time it's real
And then you faked it
Hey hey

We're all in need of a heart fix
Breaking love down when it throws the
Stones and sticks
Oh you could use a heart fix
Dragging us down with the same old tricks
We're all alone I'm all alone

And we all hide our truer side
No one realize underneath the pride
I know
Who cares it's wrong
Who cares it's right
Cause in the end it never matters
Winning the fight I'm feeling like
Stepping on glass until it's shatters
Ohh yeah!

We're all in need of a heart fix
Breaking love down when it throws the
Stones and sticks
Oh I could use a heart fix
Dragging us down with the same old tricks
Killing It's not too late for a heart fix
Rescue my heart before it turns to bricks
We're all alone I'm all alone

The grass is greener

And the dark is always meaner than we want it
Go in between what we wanted so bad
And what we needed
To be in love and not alone

We're all in need of a heart fix
Breaking love down when it throws the
Stones and sticks
Oh I could use a heart fix
Dragging us down with the same old tricks
We're all alone I'm all alone
Yeah

We're all in need of a heart fix
Breaking love down with our
Stones and sticks
Oh I could use a heart fix
Dragging us down with the same old tricks
It's not too late for a heart fix

Rescue my heart before it turns to bricks
We're all in need of a heart fix
Breaking love down with our
Stones and sticks
Oh I could use a heart fix
Dragging us down with the same old tricks
It's not too late for a heart fix
Rescue my heart before it turns to bricks
We're all in need of a heart fix
Breaking love down with our
Stones and sticks
Oh I could use a heart fix
Dragging us down with the same old tricks
It's not too late for a heart fix
Rescue my heart before it turns to bricks