

Wanna Be

Lee Aaron

I requited love
It's like the ember of a fire that never dies
Ahh baby i really really wanna be inside your head
Crawl under your bed
And see your dreams in technicolor
I really wanna really wanna
Be the steering wheel of your car
Just turn me over to where you are

R:

I wanna be the new world you discover
I wanna be the sweat upon your sheets
I wanna be the pillow when you sleep
I wanna be your favorite chocolate bar
I wanna be the lemon that you squeeze
I wanna be the answer to your please
I really really wanna be your forever girl

R:

Walk baby I really really wanna be your stereo
Rock you everywhere you go oh-oh
The sweet music that fills your ears
I wanna be the thing that's always [?] here on the tip of your tongue
The name that makes you come on down
The sal inside your happy tears

I wanna be your destination
Your main preoccupation
The vibration that rings and stings
In your [?] heartstring

R:

I wanna be the spoon that fits your lips
I wanna be the beat that your heart skips
I wanna be your favorite chocolate bar
I wanna be the lemon that you squeeze
I wanna be the answer to your please
I really really wanna be your forever girl

The problem is we're still just friends
And I can't for this charade to finally end
Please tell me you surely see
That I'm the one that send you, over the edge
Wow

R:

I wanna be the sweat upon your sheets
I wanna be the pillow when you sleep
I wanna be your favorite chocolate bar
I wanna be the lemon that you squeeze
I wanna be the answer to your please
I really really wanna be your forever girl
