

Cry

Lee Brice

Who says a man don't cry?
Yeah, somebody done told you a lie
I've been cryin' over you all night
Who says a man don't cry?

And who says a man don't hurt?
Never had their heart ripped outta their shirt
Been lonely and down in the dirt
Who says a man don't hurt?

'Cause baby, baby, baby, baby
All I see when I close my eyes
Is taillights fading away in the Georgia sky

I've been cryin' in my beer, cryin' in my bed
Cryin' on the pillow where you used to lay your head
I'ma cry myself to sleep tonight
Who says a man don't cry?

And tell me, who says a man don't beg?
Didn't see me in the rain on the night she left
Beggin', "Please don't say goodbye yet"
Who says a man don't beg?
Oh, baby, baby, baby

I've been cryin' in my beer, cryin' in my bed
Cryin' on the pillow where you used to lay your head
I'ma cry myself to sleep tonight
Who says a man don't cry?
Oh, baby, baby, baby

(Baby, baby, baby)
Who says a man don't cry?
Somebody gone and told you a lie
'Cause I've been cryin' over you all night
Who says a man don't cry?
Who says a man don't cry

I've been cryin' in my beer, cryin' in my bed
(Who says a man don't cry?)
Cryin' on the pillow where you used to lay your head
I'ma cry myself to sleep tonight
Who says a man don't cry?
(Who says a man, who says a man?)

Yeah, I've been cryin' in my beer, cryin' in my bed
Cryin' on the pillow where you used to lay your head
I'ma cry myself to sleep tonight
Who says a man don't cry?

Yeah, I'm gonna cry myself to sleep tonight
Who says a man don't cry?
