

'Til Summer's Gone

Lee Brice

I want the sun to sit right there in the sky
Keep sippin' on this cold Bud Light
And roll that King across her suntanned shoulders
I want to kiss her neck with my chin in the water
Look in her eyes, and tell her I want her
Watch her smile, sit right here and hold her

'Til summer's gone

I want to dig my toes deep down in the mud
Hang on tight to this all day buzz
Whisper her the song playing on the radio
I just want to frame this picture
Feel the breeze and stay here with her
Drink this lukewarm beer and float

'Til summer's gone
Until summer's gone
Oh baby...

September's coming like an on time train
Gonna leave me here and take her away
That's more than this old boy can think about
So let's not think about it, no
Girl, let's not think about it

Until summer's gone
Until summer's gone
Until summer's gone

I want the sun to sit right there in the sky
Keep sippin' on this cold Bud Light
And roll that King across her suntanned shoulders
I want to kiss her neck with my chin in the water
Watch her smile, sit right here and hold her
