Looking into silently, silently
I don't like it
Like stars embroidered in the dark sky
Sharply stuck in my mind

After I open my eyes to the world
Hard for me to control
I'm attracted, So I feel special
When our eyes meet,
Come a little closer
Come closer come closer
Now wake up

Knocking on your heart

Get me high, much higher, now
Come over the moonlight
Starry-eyed, Get me high, Tonight
Knock Knock Knocking on your heart

Don't live everyday watching carefully, Why not Even if I know differences, many or small,
No, it doesn't matter
You can live frankly, yes, naturally
If you are smart, go for it

After I open my eyes to the world
Hard for me to control
I'm attracted, So I feel special
When our eyes meet,
Come a little closer
Come closer come closer
Now wake up

Don't make me wait, no more
You know knocking leading to breaking
The night goes on slowly, slowly
