

Hear You Now

Lee DeWyze

I don't want to talk about it
I ain't missing none of this
If you feel we've both forgotten
Tell me now what do we miss, yeah

Something tells me I'm the reason
Don't take much to figure out
I can hear your voice in trembling
Must speak up you're cutting out

I Hear you now, I hear you now
I Hear you now

Just for now let's keep pretending
None of this is happening
What did I do to deserve this?
Feel it's right in front of me

I am breaking down before your eyes
I am breaking down before your eyes
Right before your eyes

I hear you now, I hear you now
I hear you now

I don't want to talk about it
I ain't missing none of this yeah

I hear you now, I hear you now
I hear you now

I am breaking down before your eyes
I hear you now
I am breaking down before your eyes
Before your eyes
