

Weight

Lee DeWyze

The weight of it all on your shoulders
The silence crawls with every word
Lost in the dark reaching for you
There's only so much one can go through

Just wait
And just wait
And just wait
Just wait

You can't do this anymore
But what are you really fighting for?
Time won't slow down and wait for you
There's only so much one can go through

Just wait
And just wait
And just wait
Just wait
