

Worth Waiting

Lee DeWyze

It's hard when you find love
Cuz you never give enough
And all the while you were pretending
At times you're insecure
But I let you know for sure
That all the time it was worth waiting

And when you're gone
You can listen to this song
To remind yourself
That it was worth waiting

When you close your eyes
It hurts you
But you try to stay asleep until the morning

And when we're both awake
Your hand in mine, I'll take
The beginning of a perfect story

And when you're gone
You can listen to this song
To remind yourself
That it was worth waiting
To remind yourself

When you're gone
You can listen to this song
To remind yourself
That it was worth waiting

And when I'm gone
I will listen to this song
To remind myself
That it was worth waiting