

It's All Over But the Crying

Lee Fields

Is it all over but the crying
Ain't no sense of lying we both know...

It's been 3 long years since I've lost my mind
I never thought I could be so bright
Try to live out fantasy
When all the time girl you were making a foul of me
Hope you'll find what you are looking for
I go my way... you go yours
Ain't no such time up keep holding on
We both know the feeling is gone

Is it all over but the crying
Ain't no sense of lying we both know
Is it all over but the crying
Ain't no sense of lying we both know

My money has been... my heart is broke
The lie we are living, baby, has become a joke
A pretty face cold as ice
A lying tone has destroyed my life
I wish somebody will tell me what to do
I believe [?] my stay with you
Make no sense try to keep holding on
We both know the feeling is gone
Is gone, gone

Is it all over but the crying
Ain't no sense of lying we both know
Is it all over but the crying
Ain't no sense of lying we both know
We both know, we both know...

Ain't no sense try to hold on
The feeling is done
Ain't no sense in trying to [?]
Is gone, gone
