

Let Him In

Lee Fields

This man is trying to get back in love with you
And he hope you still have feelings
And he's so sorry, he was untrue
With just one tinder, he can rekindle the flames
And once the fires' started
You can feel the warmth of love again

Why don't you let him
Let him back in to your heart
Let him in
Why don't you let him
Let him back in to your heart
Let him in

She's heard all of his nonsense
So many times before
But with all of his lies
She just doesn't trust him anymore
She says to herself: "Does he take me, does he take me for a fool?"
Not even half a man can treat a woman so cruel

Why don't you let him
Let him back in to your heart
Let him in
Why don't you let him
Let him back in to your heart
Let him in

Over and over
Over and over
Gotta break this circle

Why don't you let him
Let him back in
I believe the man would be much better
Why don't you let him
Let him back in
I believe the man must think of you while you're upset
Why don't you let him
Let him back in
Girl just give him one more chance in your life
