

Waiting On The Sidelines

Lee Fields

I lost the love I found
When my baby put me down
Feel just like a king that lost his throne
All because the girl is gone

Take your time girl
If you change your mind girl
I'll be waiting on the sidelines

Lonely is the man who walks alone
Longing for what now is gone
Feel just like a ship lost at sea
Without her sweet love guiding me

I chase the fortunes, I chase the fame
What left me now is a crying shame

Take your time girl (Take your time)
If you change your mind girl (Change your mind)
I'll be waiting on the sidelines (Waiting, waiting, waiting, for you)
So take your time girl (Take your time)
If you change your mind girl (Change your mind)
I'll be waiting on the sidelines

Tempted by the games people play
This poor heart was lost, led astray
Nothing in this world could take your place
So I'll be waiting with a tear stained face

I've chased the fortunes, I've chased the fame
What left me now is a crying shame

So take your time girl (Take your time)
If you change your mind girl (Change your mind)
I'll be waiting on the sidelines (Waiting, waiting, waiting, for you)
So take your time girl (Take your time)
If you change your mind girl (Change your mind)
I'll be waiting on the sidelines (Waiting, waiting, waiting, for you)

(Take your time girl)
Oh, I'll be there
(If you change your mind)
Oh, yes I will
(I'll be waiting on the sidelines)
Call me, call me
(Waiting, waiting, waiting, for you)
Call me baby
(Take your time girl)
Ooh
(If you change your mind)
I'll be there
(I'll be waiting on the sidelines)
I'm coming baby
(Waiting, waiting, waiting, for you)
