

Walk On Thru That Door

Lee Fields

I've played with your heart, honey, for far too long
Far too long, far too long
Well pain and sorrow, I know I've done you wrong
Done you wrong, done you wrong

And I know you tired of fighting, girl, 'cause it's all my fault
Didn't want to see it, I can't change, I just can't change
Maybe it's better we go our separate ways
I hate to leave you lonely but it's better off this way

I've been walking through that door
Walking through that door
Can't can't let you see me cry
I don't wanna see you cry

I've been walking through that door
Walking through that door
This is my last goodbye
I don't wanna say goodbye

You know I never liked to be in once for too long
For too long, for too long
'Cause I hurt the one I'm with, it's best that I keep Moving on, moving on, moving on

Girl, I know you're tired of fighting 'cause it's all my fault
Everyone can see I can't change, I just can't change
Maybe it's better we go our separate ways
I hate to leave you lonely but it's better off this way

I've been walking through that door
Walking through that door
Can't let you see me cry
I don't wanna see you cry

I've been walking through that door
Walking through that door
This is my last goodbye
I don't wanna say goodbye

So I'm walking through that door
Walking through that door
Can't let you see me cry
I don't wanna see you cry

I'm just walking through that door
Walking through that door
This is my last goodbye
It killed me to see water in your eyes

Oh, oh, oh, let me go, yeah
My, my, my, let me go
Uh, baby, I'm on my way
Uh, yeah
