

Suddenly Tennessee

Lee Hazlewood

We woke up this morning in a Tulsa calaboose They fed us brown beans for breakfast and they had to turn us loose
I didn't like that old sheriff and I wish I had told him so What he don't know won't hurt me so come on buddy let's go Let's go to Suddenly, Suddenly, Suddenly, Suddenly, Suddenly,
Suddenly, Suddenly, Suddenly, Tennessee

Three nights ago in Phoenix a lady bit off your thumb But I really shouldn't call her no a lady causetook the damn thing and run Then some old boy from Tucson threw the jukebox straight at me
And I'm really sorry it landed on the spot where your thumb used to be It'll heal in Suddenly, Suddenly, Suddenly, Suddenly, Suddenly, Suddenly, Suddenly,
Suddenly, Tennessee

I tell you something old beauty you look a terrible mess
It's time you took off your blue jeans and got yourself in a dress
And wash and comb that blond hair and jumped off this train with me
'cause we're just five minutes from talking to the folks in Suddenly Talking about Suddenly, Suddenly, Suddenly, Suddenly, Suddenly, Suddenly, Suddenly,
Suddenly, Tennessee
