The things that you said without much thought
Is making me locked up with thoughts all night
I think I'm going crazy
Were you just saying hi because you were drunk?
I was texting and erasing for a while
Although you erased me quite easily too
Is it just an illusion?
These days, I see a loneliness that only I can see in your pictures
No, I shouldn't do this
You would want me to be like this
You always hold out your hand
In a place where I can't go
My dear, if you can't come back to me
You can't look back either
Baby I will try to let you go
My dear, if you can't be with me
Don't even let me breathe
Because I'm still in you
You used to avoid me in case you ran into me
But why am I seeing you everywhere these days?
These coincidences become like fate
Though I know it's hopeful torture
You still hold out your hand
In a place where I can't go
My dear, if you can't come back to me
You can't look back either
Baby I will try to let you go
My dear, if you can't be with me
Don't even let me breathe
Because I'm still in you

You can live just fine without me
So why are you bothering me and driving me crazy?
Baby please let me go
Don't you know
I'm dying
Oh god
If you can't let me go then just come back to me
My dear, if you can't come back to me
You can't look back either
Baby I will try to let you go
My dear, if you can't be with me
Don't even let me breathe
Because I'm still in you
