

Country Girls

Lee Kernaghan

Well little missy's one cool chick, street smart and city slick works so hard to look just right, she turns some heads on frida y night

Never would have crossed her mind that what she does for fun ain't how it is, oh yeah She's an urban dweller, city bred, no fashion book she hasn't read, but thats fine, well all right

But what's a country girl do for fun, when her working day is done, well her fella is one lucky man she'll find work for idle hands, and turn him inside out before she's done

Now little Jo lives way out west A tiny town called Bourke, she was raised on beef and beans She's not affraid to work, now she's aware of that high class livin that a young girls 'sposed to know, oh yeah But she don't own one single suit, just faded jeans and cowboy boots
She's the, toast of the town hey little Jo

But what's a country girl do for fun, when her
working day is done, well her fella is one lucky man
she'll find work for idle hands,

Now little miss is in a bind, she's shaved off all her hair tryin to stay one step ahead, now she can't go anywhere Little Jo's been fencing in the sun all she's looking nice and brown, oh yeah
Now the day is done her minds at rest, she's gonna do what she loves best Thats spend some loving time with her good man Thats what a, country girl do for fun when her working day is done, well her fella is one lucky man she'll find work for idle hands, and turn him inside out before she's done. oh yeah

But what's a country girl do for fun, when her
working day is done, well her fella is one lucky man
she'll find work for idle hands,

She'll turn him inside out before she's done She'll turn him inside out before she's done, yeah...
