

Shelter

Lee Kernaghan

You can almost touch the ocean, shimmering in the distant haze
As you stand there on that mountain on this loveliest day of days
Around half the world you've drifted, left no wild oats unsown
But now your view has shifted and you think you've just come home

And you're drowning in the sunshine as it falls down from the sky
And there's something stirring in your heart, bright colours fill your eyes
As from here to the far horizon your beauty does unfold
And oh you look so lovely, dressed in green and gold

To the homeless and the hungry, may we always open doors May the restless and the weary find safe harbour on our shores
May she always be our dreamtime place, a spirit's glad release
May she always be our shelter, may we always live in peace

peace
