

Tender Touch

Lee Roy Parnell

See that girl sittin' in the corner
The one that looks so all alone
It's plain to see that you got your eye on her
Been thinking bout her all night long
But before you go and ask her name
I think there's something you should know

She's been lied to just one time too many
She's been stepped on just a little too much
Had a hard life with all the hurt that's in it
So if you want to win her love oh it's gonna take a tender touch

See those eyes I know what they're saying
She'll never trust another man
A girl like that is gonna take some healing
She's gonna need a gentle hand
So if you think that you want to try
Go ahead but don't forget

She's been lied to just one time too many...

So if you think that you want to try go ahead but don't forget

She's been lied to just one time too many...

She's been lied to just one time too many...
